ENGLAND's JOY,

For the Taking off

The Chimney-Money,

OR,

The NATIONS Hearty Thanks for their

MAJESTIES Royal Clemency.

Tune of, Hey Boys up go we. Licensed, and Entred according to Order.

1026.

Chear hearts are Old Boys in Ten,
and Money the Musick thereof;
then sings you call of Chimney Men,
full Pipes a Crown or two:
Let us with our Gracious King,
our grateful thanks repay,
for being such a gracious thing,
as take this Tax away.

The Chimney-Money, which oppress
the people that are poor;
Both gentlemen are loth to see,
and will be felt no more:
Then let us pray for our Lord,
in such a Gracious King,
whose Noble heart and Gliding hand,
doth all these Blessings bring?

Now happy Times are coming on,
every poor man may see;
For now the Chimney Tax is gone,
our children dare be glad:
Well fit our Country Cottage fine,
and push the Pot about;
Well drink an Health unto our King,
till all our Liquor's out.

The Country Misses now need not fear
to bring their Beaux home;
Or let their Mincing Mothers declare their Cleanliness and Mirth:
For Chimney Men no more will come,
or take your Stacks away;
you safely may enjoy your home,
there's no such Tax to pay.

Our loving Gracious King and Queen,
may Heaven them bless;
And give them long a Glorious Reign,
and Crown their Happiness;
May they still Famous reckon'd be,
for what they've done in Europe;
And may they live in Christ's esteem,
all Blessings pray more.
